EASLEY REAPPOINTS FLOOD TO WAKE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley reappointed Barbara T. Flood of Raleigh to the Wake Technical Community College Board of Trustees.

Flood taught in the North Carolina Public School System for 29 years before retiring from the Wake County Public Schools in 1986. She is currently the chairman of the personnel committee for Wake Technical Community College, a member of the board of directors for ATO, Inc. and a member of the Raleigh Chapter of the Links, Inc. Flood received her bachelor's degree from North Carolina Central University and her master's degree in music from East Carolina University.

The Wake Technical Community College Board of Trustees has thirteen members who serve four-year terms. The main duties of the board are to elect a president to the institution; employ all other personnel to the community college; purchase land that is necessary for the operation of the college; apply the standards for admission and graduation; receive and accept donations given to the community college; and provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution.
